MEDICINAL

Discouraged

Men, who have suffered the tortures of dyspepsia, will find encouragement in the following letter. It points the way to certain help and almost certain cure. In ninety-eight cases out of every one hundred in which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is used the result is a perfect and permanent cure. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition, strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, and nourishes the nerves. It has cured in hundreds of cases after all other medicines have utterly failed to give relief.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has performed a wonderful cure," writes Mr. M. H. House, of Charleston, Franklin Co., Ark. "I had the worst case of dyspepsia, the doctors say that they ever saw. After trying seven different medicines, I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am cured."

Chronic dyspepsia may consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y. Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send at one-cent stamps for paper-covered book, or at three-cent stamps for cloth bound volume. THE LATE CAB MADDOX.

The sudden death of Mr. Cab Maddox is Richmond was announced in yesterday's Gazette. The deceased spent much of his early life in Alexandria, and visited this city so often and was so well known that he was almost as familiar a figure in our midst as one of our own citizens.

The deceased entered the Confederate service as a mere boy, and became a member of Mosby's command. He was an intense Southerner. Physically, he was one of the largest men in Virginia. He had weighed as much as 450 pounds, but at the time of his death weighed but 350. His wit was proverbial, and all over the State thousands of anecdotes are told of his sparkling jokes. He was never much of a drinker, and recently gave up the habit. He was fond of horses, and generally owned one or two which he kept on the track.

H. Coles Jordan, who also served under Mosby, paid a high tribute yesterday to the gallantry and dash of the boy soldier, "Cab" Maddox, and Col. Mosby himself always spoke of him in the most complimentary manner. An instance of his wit occurred a few days ago in a conversation with William L. Royall. Mr. Royall owns a farm in Fauquier, which does not flow with milk and honey, and, indeed, is recognized as being "the land." Meeting Mr. Maddox on the street, Mr. Royall said: "Cab, don't you want to buy that farm of mine in Fauquier?" "That farm of yours?" replied Cab; "not much, I tell you, Mr. Royall, I would not give you my note for that farm."

Another reminiscence that caused laughter was made at the Mosby banquet a few years ago in Alexandria. Col. Mosby, Gen. Epps Hutton, Senator Daniel and many others were marching around the banquet hall before being seated, and Cab was in the line. A spirited fiddler, who had served with Mosby, was making the music, and as Cab passed the reporters' table one of them asked him what air was being played. "The Ragtime March," replied Cab, as quick as thought, and those around him in the laugh. He was Chamberlain's C. B. Cholora and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

His life saved By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved my life," says A. E. Lafollette, of Gregory Landing, Clarke county, Missouri. "I was in such bad shape that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb, one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler, and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

"After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—And Bell, Fredonia, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1. bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size.
